REVISION AND ADDITIONS TO MOSES CODE DECEPTION ARTICLE

Last week, on March 6, I sent out a new article about a movie that is due to come out early April, 2008. The movie is called The Moses Code. In my article I express a number of concerns, one of which is the extreme misusage of the Biblical Name of God.

It is my hope that my grammatical changes and small additions to the article will make what I am trying to communicate clearer, more readable, and more "palatable" for those readers who disagree with our position. My goal here as many of you know is not to blast people with information, but to lovingly present the truth in order to spare people from what we would consider to be potentially and/or harmful spiritual practices.

The revised version of The Moses Code Deception is now online on a new SRN webpage.

UPDATES AND PROGRESS PAGE

We have also added a new page to our website called Progress & New Items. This is primarily for our financial donors to see what our current projects are as well as keep up to date on our progress.
