SRN Now Accepting Donations ONLINE

Can You Help SRN Reach Across the Globe?

We joyfully consider our ministry a labor of love and we are blessed to see the amount of people who have responded favorably to our outreach.

Thank you to all who have helped us along the road!

We are happy to announce that SRN is finally now able to accept Online Donations through our Donations and Missions Support Page.

We currently have three options for those who would like to partner financially with our ministry:

1. Recurring Monthly Donations \(Online\)
2. One Time Gift Donations \(Online\)
3. Donation by Check

For those who do not have a PayPal account you may still use the Online Donation service through SRN.

Because we are no longer living overseas as missionaries our ministry support has dropped significantly. In January of 2008 we started all over as far as ministry support. SRN receives very little financial support at the moment and we currently have less than we need to cover our basic administrative expenses. We are grateful for whatever help we receive and we are very thankful for needed prayer support.

As many of you, our desire is to continue on with SRN. When funds allow, we hope to return to Scotland, Romania and South India for short-term missions projects. Before we can do this, we need funding for one employee (40+ hours per week), for a small local office space, and for basic monthly expenses.

Having a small office for daily work and local outreach events would help us tremendously. This would provide us with the much needed creative space to house our research library, files, desks, computers, etc. This would also create a valuable workspace environment for us that is away from the home, out of the coffee shop, and not in our vehicle.

For those who would like to see some of SRN's basic needs and where some of our time is spent, we have created two more new webpages. These are simply to share with our supporters some of SRN's basic financial needs, our short-term missions needs, and some monthly progress items that we post.
