For the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine;
but after their own lusts shall they heap to themselves teachers, having itching ears;
And they shall turn away their ears from the truth, and shall be turned unto fables. - 2 Tim 4:3-4

Dear friends of SRN,

The content of this current newsletter is a bit rough and may be difficult for some to handle. Please know that it is not our desire to needlessly offend anyone. Our intention is to address problematic trends in the church and to warn of the dangers of cults, the occult, mystical practices and spiritual abuse - inside and outside the church. In doing so we seek to present God's Word accurately as the remedy by which those immersed in false Christian movements and dangerous practices can be set free from corrupt and abusive leaders. Personally and as a ministry we have always held to the Scriptures as the ultimate authority for holy living and balanced Christian ministry.

As you read this newsletter please understand that SRN and the like-minded ministries that have granted us permission to publish their material outright reject false and aberrant doctrines, carnal worship methodology, "marketing the church," mocking and blaspheming God, His church and fellow Christians. We also reject the needless use of profanity (i.e. "cuss words"), vulgarity and rude slang words in sermons, Christian ministry and personal lifestyle. These things are offensive to God and should be recognized by the church as such. "Let no corrupt communication proceed out of your mouth, but that which is good to the use of edifying, that it may minister grace unto the hearers" (Eph. 4:29). I mention all this because we have included samples of terms and catch-phrases that many ungodly leaders are spewing out on this generation, including the youth! In many cases what is considered to be normal is pure carnality, mockery and profanity, issuing forth under the guise of being "missional," "relevant," "prophetic," "revelational" and "cool." It is for good reason Scripture says "Let not many of you become teachers, my brethren, knowing that as such we will incur a stricter judgment" (James 3:1).

Because widespread abuses are being foisted upon countless people by hyper-Charismatic false teachers and doctrinally polluted Emerging Church leaders, it is imperative that people recognize what is going on. Why? Because the next major step in current downward spiral of deluding influences and desensitization to sound theology (and discernment) is vehement persecution of all who are willing to defend the faith. As error continues to increase churches, so too, willing resistance against accountability, sound theology and holy living will increase. Compromised leaders will increase their mockery, rejection and disdain for those who remain faithful to Scripture and study Bible prophecy in light of current and future end-times events. Those who remain faithful to our Lord Jesus Christ, who consistently confronted error and warned "Take heed that no one deceive you..." (Matt. 24:4; Mk 13:5) - will be persecuted. "Yea, and all that will live godly in Christ Jesus shall suffer persecution" (2 Timothy 3:12).

The Scriptures warn, "Let no one deceive you," (Jer. 29:8; Eph. 5:6; 2 Thes. 5:3; 1 Jn 3:7) yet many leaders refuse to listen. Others are just too lazy to look into well researched articles written by people who have already done the research, oftentimes suffering dearly for doing so. May those who uphold God's Word stand firm and fearless unto the end.

ABOUT THE MINISTRY OF SRNProclaiming the Gospel and Encouraging Biblical Discernment!

Spiritual Research Network (SRN) researches, informs and warns about the dangers of cults, spiritual abuse and mysticism (occult) based spirituality.

Spiritual Research Network (SRN) is an independent Christian outreach that is committed first and foremost to the Lord Jesus Christ and the integrity of God's Word - The Holy Bible.

From its inception as a tiny missions outreach in Edinburgh, Scotland in 2004, the goal of SRN has been to provide a platform for outreach so that others may come to a deeper understanding of the love, grace and truth as it is found in the biblical gospel of Jesus Christ, as taught in Scripture.

MISSION

The mission of SRN is to encourage biblical discernment amongst those who consider themselves to be biblical Christians and to proclaim the Gospel of Jesus Christ to nonbelievers. For these reasons we give great emphasis to the person, work and words of Jesus Christ in all of our activities.

PURPOSE

SRN exists in order to: Glorify, honor and serve the Lord Jesus Christ by living and proclaiming the biblical Gospel message without compromise; Provide evangelistic training and resources with an emphasis on the Bible as the verbally inspired Word of God, inerrant and infallible in the original manuscripts, and the supreme and final authority in matters of faith and life; Expose teachings that oppose, undermine and distort the biblical Gospel of God's grace as found in Scripture; Contend earnestly for the faith against those who compromise, suppress or reject doctrinal truth; and Encourage and support former members of other belief systems who have escaped spiritual deception and abuse.

WEBSITE and NEWSLETTER

The SRN Website and Newsletter serve as an extension of SRN's local ministry. The General Editor is Chris Lawson.

BELIEFS

SRN holds to the orthodox teachings of the historic Christian faith. SRN holds the following as primary essentials for Christian belief. "The Five Basic Doctrines: 1) The Trinity: God is one "What" and three "Who's" with each "Who" possessing all the attributes of Deity and personality; 2) The Person of Jesus Christ: Jesus is 100% God and 100% man for all eternity; 3) The Second Coming: Jesus Christ is coming bodily to earth to rule and judge; 4) Salvation: It is by grace alone through faith alone in Christ alone; 5) The Scripture: It is entirely inerrant and sufficient for all Christian life." SRN Statement of Faith can be read online.

PROVISION

SRN is supported through the prayers and financial support of donors who share our concern for God's people and the lost. Accountability and transparency is our policy. To help support the ministry of SRN please see our current donation details online.

Clowning Around In The Pulpit Fresh expressions of emerging church ecumenism

By Chris Lawson

“Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the commandment of God our Saviour, and Lord Jesus Christ, which is our hope; Unto Timothy, my own son in the faith: Grace, mercy, and peace, from God our Father and Jesus Christ our Lord. As I besought thee to abide still at Ephesus, when I went into Macedonia, that thou mightest charge some that they teach no other doctrine...”

(1 Timothy 1:1-3 KJV)

In his first pastoral letter to Timothy, Paul the apostle exhorted the young pastor to command others that they “teach no other doctrine, neither give heed to fables and endless genealogies...” Christlike love was at the root and foundation of Paul’s command and warning, and proper edification for believers in Christ was his goal. Unlike many leaders today, Timothy heeded Paul’s command. As Christians we believe that Scripture was inspired by God the Holy Spirit (2 Tim 3:16-17). As such, God’s exhortation through Paul to Timothy was given so that the church would be spared from doctrinal aberration and heresy.

It is no secret that pastoral warning and teaching have for almost 2000 years been themes of the pastoral epistles - these themes and others runs throughout each of these three letters. The pastoral letters of I and II Timothy and Titus are the biblical standard, not a passing fad. Biblical theology, balanced leadership and proper roles in the family and the church are at the core of these letters and similar material can also be found in I and II Peter, I, II, and III John, Jude, Ephesians, Philippians, Colossians, I and II Thessalonians, etc. The New Testament is jam packed with solid doctrine and practical injunctions to guide the willing servant of God. Systematic, consistent study of these books and the rest of the Bible should be the standard in order to lead the Christian into sound theology and balanced Christian living and ministry. Not doing so will likely lead a zealous believer (and for sure a non-believer) into aberrant teaching, popular heresies and following big-name personalities that seemingly win the day with big crowds - and lots of “big money” too. The learjets, limousines and Kentucky Fried Chicken buckets full of money say it all. The road to getting there is lined with false teaching.

Unfortunately there are many in the church today who are claiming “new revelations.” Their gnostic methodology reveals their delusion. In our own age, nearly 2000 years after Paul penned his letter to Timothy, one wonders how so many present-day “popular” leaders are failing to do the simple thing that Paul told Timothy - “teach no other doctrine...” Unfortunately many churches have tossed sound biblical theology and balanced leadership practices out of the window.

I Never Knew You: Depart From Me

To illustrate the point here all one has to do is turn on the television and watch Trinity Broadcasting Network or GOD TV, or visit You Tube and watch what is being touted as “revival,” “prosperity,” “the anointing” and more. The bulk of sermon content and the unbiblical antics of such false Christianity destroy the biblical Gospel message. Surely this is the type of apostasy that Jesus alluded to when he warned of false prophets who were inwardly ravening wolves (in sheep’s clothing). God Himself said we would know them by their fruits. God expects people to discern the good from the bad!

“Beware of false prophets, which come to you in sheep’s clothing, but inwardly they are ravening wolves. Ye shall know them by their fruits. Do men gather grapes of thorns, or figs of thistles? Even so every good tree bringeth forth good fruit; but a corrupt tree bringeth forth evil fruit. A good tree cannot bring forth evil fruit, neither can a corrupt tree bring forth good fruit. Every tree that bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire. Wherefore by their fruits ye shall know them. Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven. Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have cast out devils? and in thy name done many wonderful works? And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity” (Matthew 7:15-23).

God Given Warnings

God has given warnings and even today has raised up many individuals and ministries to warn His church - but few are choosing to listen. God the Holy Spirit has placed many warnings in Scripture about the character and nature of those who would come in order to deceive, mislead, betray, make merchandise of people, speak lies in God’s name, destroy the Israelites and divide, deceive and ruin God’s church from the outside and from within. How many there are who fail to see the warnings and forget that God names false teachers, false prophets, counterfeit believers, aberrant teachers, and demonic entities by name - Lucifer, Nadab and Abihu, Korah, Dathan, Abiram, Eli’s sons, the old prophet of Beth-el, priests under Jehoshaphat, corrupt priests and levites, abusive rulers in the temple, Caiaphas, Judas Iscariot, Simon the sorcerer, Judaizers, Sadducees, Diotrephes, Elymas, Hymenaeus, Philetus, Alexander the Coppersmith, the Nicolaitans, etc. There was also Demas, who once walked as a Christian but forsook Paul and God’s church, “For Demas hath forsaken me, having loved this present world, and is departed unto Thessalonica...” (2 Timothy 4:10).

Naves Topical Index lists just some of the warnings God has given in Scripture:

Sacrificing biblical truth for the cause of ecumenical unity and the promotion of carnal methodology in churches are the norm in our age. In many cases it seems that I and II Timothy and Titus are all but forgotten about. Drawing big crowds through the compromise of biblical truth not only appeals to the flesh and is very popular, it breeds a jump-on-the-bandwagon mentality amongst pastoral groups and off-base churches scavenging for anything that will bring people through the doors. Instead of playing fast and loose with God’s church, Christian leaders across the world ought to be discussing Bible prophecy in light of global events and teaching biblical discernment in light of the end-times apostasy. They should also be able to effectively proclaim and clearly explain a solid biblical Gospel message that includes repentance from sin, fleeing from the wrath of God and the judgment to come and trusting in Jesus Christ alone for salvation - for salvation can only be obtained by trusting in God’s grace alone, through faith alone in Jesus Christ alone.

If Ye Continue In My Word

At the end of the day one must choose carefully. Leaders can opt for carnal teachings and worldly methods to grow churches, which delude souls and lead people into eternal darkness and misery, or they can obey the Lord Jesus Christ, continue in His Word, and be blessed through yielded surrender and obedience unto Him:

“And he that sent me is with me: the Father hath not left me alone; for I do always those things that please him. As he spake these words, many believed on him. Then said Jesus to those Jews which believed on him, If ye continue in my word, then are ye my disciples indeed; And ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free” (John 8:29-32).

In the illustration that follows in the second half of this article, entitled Clowning around in the pulpit: Fresh expressions of emerging church ecumenism, one can see a glowing example of the apostasy at large in the church today. The 2005 Emerging Church UK National Church Leadership Conference is just one example of many that this writer has either investigated firsthand, or has received firsthand accounts from concerned individuals.

Although the sincere intentions of the individuals and churches involved in the Emerging Church Conference were well-meaning, there is no biblical precedent whatsoever for the liberal smorgasbord type of Christianity that was presented/encouraged. The fact is, the professing Christian leaders did not just place sound biblical theology, scriptural discernment and God’s warnings in the back seat, they threw them off the bus! What you are about to read may shock you and it should have been written about long ago. I assure you that it actually did happen and much worse and much larger compromises are presently happening all around the world.

After reading about this you will not only see that this type of event not only convolutes the biblical Gospel, it deludes those that stand for what conferences like this promote - an emotional “love” for Jesus, but thorough resistance to His warnings about false teachers, false prophets, wolves in sheep’s clothing, end-times deception, etc. Jesus expected his disciples to obey His commands, and to recognize that the Holy Spirit is the Spirit of truth, not error!

“If ye love me, keep my commandments. And I will pray the Father, and he shall give you another Comforter, that he may abide with you for ever; Even the Spirit of truth; whom the world cannot receive, because it seeth him not, neither knoweth him: but ye know him; for he dwelleth with you, and shall be in you” (John 14:15-17).

May the following paragraphs help you see how “emerging church ecumenism” has infiltrated denominations at national leadership levels and that Christians are commanded by God to reject and “have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather reprove them” (Ephesians 5:11).

Clowning Around In The Pulpit

The testimony of biblical preachers of the past who proclaimed the unvarnished Gospel of God (Romans 1:1-5) and laid down their lives to preserve it speaks volumes. Nowadays we are seeing 21st century Emerging Church conferences (pictured) where ‘Christianized’ pagan altars are built and clowns, incense, candles, sitting before “white noise” and displaying childhood keepsakes are recognized as “Fresh Expressions” of worship! Worship of who...and what?

Indeed, this is the new standard for much of professing Christianity in Britain, the USA, Canada and beyond. From the biblical Gospel which preaches repentance from sin and faith alone in the Lord Jesus Christ for salvation, to a user-friendly politically correct social gospel that cannot save from sin, hell, and the righteous judgment of God, men and women can now be seen clowning around in the pulpit. Postmodern Emerging Church liberals that preach a radical social gospel changing church for a changing world.

“Fresh Expressions encourages new forms of church for a fast changing world, working with Christians from a variety of denominations and traditions.

The initiative has resulted in hundreds of new congregations being formed alongside more traditional churches.”

Fresh Expressions website -

In attendance (for research purposes) at the first ever Church of Scotland Emerging Church Conference (2005) a concerned missionary friend and I were able to witness firsthand the true colors behind the liberal ecumenical Emerging Church movement that has invaded the United Kingdom. Only those who were likeminded with biblical concern were able to see and hear (Matthew 11:15; Mark 4:9; Luke 8:8; 14:35; Romans 11:8; Revelation 2:7, 11, 17, 29; 3:6, 13, 22; 13:9; 22:17) just how badly the biblical Person and work of Jesus Christ was undermined at this event.

Led by the apostate Church of England (Anglican) and hosted by the apostate Church of Scotland (Presbyterian) at a liberal ecumenical Church of Scotland fellowship, the clear biblical Gospel was not preached, upheld, or honored - at all. Rather, a call to ecumenical unity through “fresh expressions” of worship was sounded forth to hundreds of church leaders, including Roman Catholics, Pentecostals, Methodists, Anglicans, Presbyterians, Episcopalians, Baptists, YWAM missionaries, Salvation Army and Vineyard Church leaders, and more.

Convergence And Global Spirituality

The leaders and book tables at this conference heavily promoted Emerging Church teachings, philosophy and methodology. A conference booklet entitled “Convergence” promoted the ideology that all streams of Christianity need to meld together into one “stream.” This is the same belief of global ecumenism where ultimately all of Christendom (except for the biblically literate and discerning) either proactively merge with, or are absorbed by Roman Catholic ecumenism and the New Spirituality (mysticism, occultism, New Age). This Richard Foster (Celebration of Discipline) promoting liberal New Age Christian Convergence booklet was written and provided by Rev. Robert Pickles. His Spiritual Formation/ New Spirituality emerging church primer, Convergence: ‘Dancing in the Rain’ - A Theological map for an Emergent Church opens with an introduction titled “Convergence - The Shape of an Emerging Global Christianity.” Pickles’ manual maps out how - with the help of Richard Foster’s book Streams of Living Water - all streams of Christianity can coalesce into one massive global movement. Pickles added his own flair to Richard Foster’s already theologically problematic book, further creating a road map to Mystery Babylon (Revelation chapters 17 and 18). Pickles’ plan includes social justice (Christianized socialism/marxism), ecumenism, “Everything in are at the core of this blasphemous trend.

Fresh Expressions Of Emerging Church Ecumenism

Oftentimes centered around mystical worship and a mixture of Roman Catholic liturgy and Eucharistic Adoration, new “fresh expressions” are representative of these so-called alternative worship practices. In many cases, yoga is offered too, for those who prefer a “Christian yoga” worship experience. Bible verses are characteristically ripped out of context and wrapped around candy coated Evangelical (no longer Evangelical) messages that simply tickle the ears, dull the conscience and lead the undiscerning into sensory overload worship practices. Only God knows how many unsaved people are sitting in churches being primed for everlasting darkness as a result of damnable aberrations, heresies and mystical/occult contemplative delusions.

God”, sacraments, being “missional,” Charismatic and Incarnational tradition, actualizing convergence, etc. Robert Pickles effectively labels his roadmap to unity as “Convergent Christianity.” So much for the “narrow way” Jesus talked about (Matthew 7:13-14), this is the “broad road” to syncretistic, New Age/ New Spirituality, ecumenical Christendom!

Prayerfully Meditating Before “White Noise”

Along with the thoroughly unbiblical ecumenical agenda at this conference came a crowning achievement of diabolical ingenuity. Attendees at this conference were led into sitting in a prayerful, meditative state - before a huge multimedia screen that displayed “white noise.” “White Noise?” Yes...that white fuzzy black and white confusion that your (older) television set produces when no images are displayed. Incredibly, the people putting on the conference were unaware (or maybe not) that sitting before “white noise” in a prayerful/meditative (receptive) state has long been associated with trying to contact the dead, spirit beings, ghosts, poltergeists, etc. Occultists and psychic mediums know this full well, as do ghost hunters, paranormal investigators, parapsychologists, necromancers, diviners, channelers, etc.

To note, the movies Poltergeist, White Noise, and numerous other occult movies and television shows have glamorized “white noise” as a means by which people can allegedly contact the dead. They actually contact demons! And now... church leaders are sitting before “white noise” at a National U.K. Church Leaders Conference? God’s Word condemns any and all such practices (Deuteronomy 18). Who really is behind these “fresh expressions” of worship?

It should also be noted that the giant multimedia screen that viewers either gazed at, or sat in “silence” before, was above the sample Emerging Church altar (pictured). The altar, which was decorated similar to pagan altars found in Latin America, India, South/East Asia, etc. included candles, books, incense, a cross, infant pajama apparel, a toy clown, party poppers, rocks and more. I have seen altars that look virtually identical to this in foreign countries, but in a different context - that context being pagan idol worship with altars of rocks, incense, candles, rice cake offerings, celebratory flowers, sacrificial offerings of blood and animal parts, colored cloth and/or clothing, pieces of hair, fetishes, voodoo dolls, face masks, beads, fruit, etc. In dismay we sat, not even believing what our eyes were observing as hundreds of ecumenical church leaders from a vast array of denominations and non-denominational ministries were enjoying a smorgasbord of unbiblical, sensory-driven pep rally speeches - all in the name of Christ. After five hours of listening to speakers and speaking with liberal ecumenical church leaders my missionary friend and I left, or should I say fled. Hostility toward “discerning” Bible believers was clear and no one would listen to us.

When Christians Are Like Shamans

The irony in all this is that upon returning to my home in Edinburgh at dusk that same day, I happened to walk by the Edinburgh Shamanic Centre. In the small shop window display was somewhat of an identical altar to the one I saw earlier that day - at the conference! The occult Shamanic magazine called Sacred Hoop, which the shopkeeper gave me upon enquiring about their spiritistic pagan altar, included the same type of altars amongst voodoo worshippers. Issue number 49 of Sacred Hoop magazine is rife with samples of pagan altars from the Day of The Dead: “Death - a lesson for life • Day of the Dead • Sacred Deer • Soul Food • Helping a Friend Cross Over • Elena Avila - Curandera • Romani Traditions of Light and Dark • Huichol Animal Sacrifice • Workshop Casualties.” Christians worshipping just like pagans?

Feeding Sheep Or Entertaining Goats

After being repulsed by the horrible theology and practices at this conference and seeing meditative “white noise,” false teachings on the book tables and the “sample” altar dressed up like Voudon (voodoo) paganism, one cannot help but soberly recall what British preacher C.H. Spurgeon declared many years ago:

“A time will come when instead of shepherds feeding the sheep, the church will have clowns entertaining the goats.”

Two-thousand years ago Paul declared:

“I charge thee therefore before God, and the Lord Jesus Christ, who shall judge the quick and the dead at his appearing and his kingdom; Preach the word; be instant in season, out of season; reprove, rebuke, exhort with all long suffering and doctrine. For the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine; but after their own lusts shall they heap to themselves teachers, having itching ears; And they shall turn away their ears from the truth, and shall be turned unto fables. But watch thou in all things, endure afflictions, do the work of an evangelist, make full proof of thy ministry” (2 Timothy 4:1-5).

Certainly that time has come! - SRN

BLASPHEMY INCORPORATED

Terms and Catch-Phrases of the Ungodly

By Bud Press, Research Consultant. Article originally published March 23, 2009.

blaspheme

to speak irreverently of God or sacred things; utter impieties

Thousands of years ago, Satan, a former anointed cherubim angel, was convinced he could raise his throne above the stars of God and make himself like the Most High. But his hopes of ruling over Almighty God and the universe He created was only a pipe dream. God clearly demonstrated Who was in charge and booted Satan and one-third of the angels out of heaven (Ezekiel chapter 28; Genesis chapter 3; Isaiah chapter 14; Revelation chapter 12).

Satan's efforts to play wiser than God backfired. It was a costly decision on his part, as well as those he conned into following him. Currently, Satan roams the earth roaring like a lion seeking to kill and destroy, and is the first blasphemer recorded in God's written word, the Bible (1 Peter 5:8; Genesis chapter 3).

But Satan's days are numbered. His fate, and the fate of those who follow him is sealed (Revelation 20:1-10).

Throughout the ages, blasphemers have come from all walks of life, races, and religious belief systems. Although the word blasphemer brings to mind the atheist, a New Age UFO cult-leader, or a shrewd, egg-headed man in Siberia who claims to be "Jesus Christ," oddly enough, there are blasphemers who claim to be Christian, many of whom carry Bibles in their hands.

Here is a list of what all blasphemers have in common, whether or not they claim to be Christian:

- they mock the God of the Bible (Father, Son, Holy Spirit) and refer to God with words and actions that bring dishonor to the Creator and Sustainer of the universe.
- they downplay sound, Biblical theology and teachings, and twist and misinterpret Scripture to conform to their particular belief system.
- they play wiser than God, attempt to reduce God to their human level of mentality, and believe God can be manipulated according to their own thoughts, whims, and fancies.
- to them, God is no more than a cool dude waving a peace sign, and a fellow goatee-wearing, earring-dangling beatnik with a good sense of humor.

- they cause doubt, and even shipwreck the faith in weak and innocent believers. They drive the unsaved further into sin and further away from Jesus Christ (i.e., If this is Christianity, I want no part of it!).
- they are severely malnourished in God's written word, and driven by their own feelings, emotions, and experiences.
- they rely on "new revelations" from their corrupt leaders, and consider themselves the holiest of all. Many have been conned into believing they are "God's chosen army" who will usher in a worldwide revival.
- they promote each other, mimic each other, and feed off of each other's folly. They compete with each other to see who can come up with the most outlandish, blasphemous terms and catch-phrases.
- they condition and desensitize new recruits over a period of time to believe what they say--even over the Bible. They are the deceived leading the deceived; the manipulated leading the manipulated.
- they push the gullible into supporting their "ministry" with financial donations and by purchasing books, videos, and DVDs--all of which fund trips around the world and expensive lifestyles.
- they ridicule discerning Christians who reach out with correction and rebuke, and warn them to "stop attacking" and "stop judging" the anointed. Yet, they stand guilty of the very thing they accuse others of doing.
- those who disagree with their ungodly behavior and damnable teachings are considered either sub-Christian or religious zealots, Pharisees, cultists, fear-mongers, hate-mongers, sensationalists, liars, witch hunters, heresy hunters, unsaved, and haters of Jesus Christ, who are possessed by a "religious spirit."
- but in reality, in these last days it is they who are ...lovers of self, lovers of money, boastful, arrogant, revilers, disobedient to parents, ungrateful, unholy, unloving, irreconcilable, malicious gossips, without self-control, brutal, haters of good, treacherous, reckless, conceited, lovers of pleasure rather than lovers of God, holding to a form of godliness, although they have denied its power; avoid such men as these (2 Timothy 3:1-5).

What you are about to read is a list of terms and catch-phrases from the mouths and writings of blasphemers within the hyper-Charismatic movement--a movement gone wild and, perhaps in some cases, mentally disturbed (refer to the YouTube video, John Crowder: Magic Carpet Ride by VinnieActs2030).

As you read the terms and catch-phrases, if you truly believe that Jesus is your drug, the Holy Spirit is a crack pipe, the gospel is thick and juicy mud, and that the glory of God is Papa's milky goo, be encouraged to study the following Scriptures, for they are God's written commands and warnings to those who flippantly mock and dishonor the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit in callous disrespect, dishonor, and irreverence:

You shall not take the name of the LORD your God in vain, for the LORD will not leave him unpunished who takes His name in vain (Exodus 20:7).

You shall not curse God, nor curse a ruler of your people (Exodus 22:28).

You shall not swear falsely by My name, so as to profane the name of your God; I am the LORD (Leviticus 19:2).

Whom have you reproached and blasphemed? And against whom have you raised your voice, and haughtily lifted up your eyes? Against the Holy One of Israel! (2 Kings 19:22)

"Now therefore, what do I have here," declares the LORD, "seeing that My people have been taken away without cause?" Again the LORD declares, "Those who rule over them howl, and My name is continually blasphemed all day long" (Isaiah 52:5).

"Therefore, son of man, speak to the house of Israel and say to them, 'Thus says the Lord GOD, "Yet in this your fathers have blasphemed Me by acting treacherously against Me" (Ezekiel 20:7).

Fools mock at sin, but among the upright there is good will (Proverbs 14:9).

For "THE NAME OF GOD IS BLASPHEMED AMONG THE GENTILES BECAUSE OF YOU," just as it is written (Romans 2:24).

This command I entrust to you, Timothy, my son, in accordance with the prophecies previously made concerning you, that by them you fight the good fight, keeping faith and a good conscience, which some have rejected and suffered shipwreck in regard to their faith. Among these are Hymenaeus and Alexander, whom I have handed over to Satan, so that they will be taught not to blaspheme (1 Timothy 1:18-20).

Do they not blaspheme the fair name by which you have been called? (James 2:7)

And he opened his mouth in blasphemies against God, to blaspheme His name and His tabernacle, that is, those who dwell in heaven (Revelation 13:6).

Closing comments...

In what can be best described as savagery in the name of God, the above terms and catch-phrases are the product of twisted minds, and a bi-product of doctrines of demons the Apostle Paul warned about in 1 Timothy 4:1-2.

Question: Why would anyone who claims to love God turn around and mock, scorn, and blaspheme His holy and precious Name? The Bible provides the answers:

For many walk, of whom I often told you, and now tell you even weeping, that they are enemies of the cross of Christ, whose end is destruction, whose god is their appetite, and whose glory is in their shame, who set their minds on earthly things (Philippians 3:18-19).

Indeed, all who desire to live godly in Christ Jesus will be persecuted. But evil men and impostors will proceed from bad to worse, deceiving and being deceived (2 Timothy 3:12-13).

For there are many rebellious men, empty talkers and deceivers, especially those of the circumcision, who must be silenced because they are upsetting whole families, teaching things they should not teach for the sake of sordid gain (Titus 1:10-11).

Do not be deceived, God is not mocked; for whatever a man sows, this he will also reap (Galatians 6:7).

On the outside, the hyper-Charismatic movement is growing, and has spent years trying to convince Christians that its "apostles," prophets, teachers, evangelists, and revivalists are legitimate and a "must have" within the body of Christ. But in the background, it has spent years producing a steady stream of male and female heretics, false prophets, and false healers. But growth and popularity within what claims to be Christian doesn't necessarily mean it is sanctioned by God. The hyper-Charismatic movement separated from truth and common sense many years ago. Thus, what appears to be a steady growth and popularity is, in reality, a steady decline and a fulfillment of Scripture:

For the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine; but wanting to have their ears tickled, they will accumulate for themselves teachers in accordance to their own desires, and will turn away their ears from the truth and will turn aside to myths (2 Timothy 4:3-4).

If God were their Father, they would love and understand Jesus Christ. Their terms and words would be filled with honor, respect, and humility for the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit (John 8:42-44). But blasphemers mimic their father, the devil, who was cast out of heaven thousands of years ago. Unless there is repentance, those who blaspheme God will be prevented from entering heaven:

But these men revile the things which they do not understand; and the things which they know by instinct, like unreasoning animals, by these things they are destroyed. Woe to them! For they have gone the way of Cain, and for pay they have rushed headlong into the error of Balaam, and perished in the rebellion of Korah. These are the men who are hidden reefs in your love feasts when they feast with you without fear, caring for themselves; clouds without water, carried along by winds; autumn trees without fruit, doubly dead, uprooted; wild waves of the sea, casting up their own shame like foam; wandering stars, for whom the black darkness has been reserved forever (Jude 1:10-13).

Blasphemers present a clear and present danger to the spiritual welfare of the believer, as well as those searching for the real Jesus Christ. The damage caused by these men and women to individuals, families, and the cause of Christ is beyond words.

G12 - CULT, ABERRANT CHRISTIAN GROUP, OR BOTH? A Warning About G12 Churches, Encounter Weekends and Spiritual Abuse!

Misión Carismática Internacional (G12)

César Castellanos Domínguez, Claudia Castellanos

(Alternate/Informal Names: government of 12, International Charismatic Mission, ladder of success, Encounters, Encuentros, Soulfire Revolution)

More Christian ministries are now warnings about Misión Carismática Internacional (G12)

The Centers For Apologetic Research (CFAR) CFAR Cult Summaries research page states the following about the abusive G12 pyramid structured discipleship program: "Distinctive Beliefs and Practices: Castellanos went to South Korea in the 1980s to learn how to adapt the Korean cell-church model of David Yonggi Cho. G12 is based on a strict disciplinarian model where individual members are accountable to their cell leaders and ultimately to the larger church and its pastors. It is charismatic and involves control principles sometimes known elsewhere as "shepherding." Controversies: The high-pressure methods of G12 recruitment/discipleship programs, as well as the need to drastically restructure church priorities to accommodate the G12 system, have caused turmoil and division across Latin America and elsewhere. The secretive, manipulative weekend Encounters have been especially controversial, with allegations of undue psychological pressure and spiritual abuse." For more material exposing the G12 Cult at <http://www.thecenters.org/>

Mike Oppenheimer of Let Us Reason Ministries (Exposing Cults/Spiritual Deception) states in his article 'The G-12 Cult': "G-12 is a "cultic discipleship course which is supposed to make every believer a leader (modeled supposedly after the apostles). - Saints beware." Read several more articles exposing the G12 Cult at Let Us Reason Ministries: <http://letusreason.org/>

The Spiritual Research Network webpage 'G12 - CULT, ABERRANT CHRISTIAN GROUP, OR BOTH' states: "Every person that has called our ministry with concerns about G12 has either called to complain about it, enquire about the abuses that are occurring in it, or ask how to get their loved one out of it." - Chris Lawson

About The Writers In This Publication

From Chris Lawson, SRN Editor:

SRN would like to extend thanks to each ministry/author who has granted us written and/or verbal permission to re-publish their articles in our SRN Newsletter. Each ministry has its hands in numerous aspects of research and writing and as we all know, the work is far to extensive for any one single ministry to cover. We appreciate the well researched writings of others, and we believe that our SRN Newsletter readers will also.

We would like to encourage our readership to visit our colleagues' websites, and if you are led to, joyfully support their ministry efforts through financial and prayer support. None of the ministries that we re-publish articles from are in the ministry for money. In fact quite a few of us have suffered in many ways for doing what we do - telling tell the truth about what's going on in the church and the world.

Simple disclaimer: SRN includes articles from fellow ministries in our newsletter because we believe that what we publish is pertinent to current issues facing individual believers as well as countless churches. SRN does not necessarily agree with every aspect of ministry or theology that our colleagues include within their respective ministries, however, we do see eye-to-eye on all the primary and essential doctrines of the historic Christian faith, without which one cannot be "saved."

SRN as a ministry (and we believe our colleagues as well) seeks to keep a well balanced approach to Christian theology, apologetics and eschatology, as well as a firmly grounded biblical hermeneutic that rejects extremes, including but not limited to Replacement Theology, any form of anti-Semitism, the current massive wave of heresies within the hyper-Pentecostal charismatic movements, and any form of immorality or ethical perversions, either in family life, or ministry. If any writers that have articles in the SRN Newsletter slide away from balanced ministry and scriptural morals and ethics, we will lovingly pursue their correction and restoration.
