Introduction

Sarah Young's best-selling 2004 book Jesus Calling and its sequels appear to be sound, biblical devotionals because of their familiar Christian language, occasional orthodox statements, and abundant scripture references. However, a detailed study reveals remarkable parallels with the best-selling 1935 devotional God Calling, a book "replete with denials of biblical teaching."<sup>3</sup>

A few similarities are apparent at first glance: the text is written as if "Jesus" is speaking directly to the reader, the narrative voice is soothing and reassuring, and the messages are sprinkled with scripture fragments. But beyond the structural parallels, there are considerable overlaps in content—the books share distinctive word choice, phrasing, and ideas throughout.

To establish how closely God Calling and the Jesus Calling series are linked, a detailed comparison is presented here. This booklet is a collection of 270 quotations from eight of Young's devotionals compared with quotations from God Calling. The quantity and detail of the similarities suggest that God Calling substantially influenced the writing of the Jesus Calling series.

In fact, the original introduction to Jesus Calling explicitly acknowledged an inspirational influence from God Calling. While this acknowledgment was redacted in later editions,<sup>4</sup> the influence remains. The original introduction is presented along with the revised version in Appendix A.

How Is God Calling Problematic?

Listed below are a few God Calling passages that conflict with the Bible, together with opposing scriptures:

"I am actually at the centre of every man's being" (GC Mar 16)
Whosoever shall confess that Jesus is the Son of God, God dwelleth in him, and he in God. (1 John 4:15 KJV)

"I, who could command a universe—I await the commands of My children."
(GC Apr 03)
Ye are my friends, if ye do whatsoever I command you. (John 15:14 KJV)

"I need you more than you need Me." (GC Mar 29)
If I were hungry, I would not tell thee: for the world is mine, and the fulness thereof. (Psalm 50:12 KJV)

"Know no theology. Know Me." (GC Nov 20)
For the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine
(2 Timothy 4:3 KJV)

"Trust in the Spirit Forces of the Unseen, not in those you see." (GC Oct 23)
Beloved, believe not every spirit, but try the spirits whether they are of God
(1 John 4:1 KJV)

"Have you ever thought what it means to be able to summon at will the God of the World?" (GC Jun 25)
In whom the god of this world hath blinded the minds of them which believe not, lest the light of the glorious gospel of Christ, who is the image of God, should shine unto them. (2 Cor. 4:4 KJV)

As a particularly obvious example, God Calling promotes the forbidden practice of communicating with the dead. Even though Deuteronomy 18:12 describes necromancers as "an abomination to the LORD," God Calling encourages the reader to turn to deceased loved ones for help:

Your loved ones are very safe in My Keeping. Learning and loving and working, theirs is a life of happiness and progress. They live to serve, and serve they truly do. They serve Me and those they love. Ceaselessly they serve. . . . How often mortals rush to earthly friends who can serve them in so limited a way, when the friends who are freed from the limitations of humanity can serve them so much better, understand better, protect better, plan better, and even plead better their cause with Me. You do well to remember your friends in the Unseen. Companying with them the more you live in this Unseen World the gentler will be your passing when it comes. (GC Sep 06)

More exposition can be found in references on p. 41, but these examples and many more show that God Calling presents a contrary message to that found in Scripture. Through the lens of the less nuanced God Calling devotional, the underlying message of Young's devotionals becomes more evident.

Soiled Work vs. Crumpled Flower

... as a mother takes the soiled, imperfect work of her child and invests it with perfection because of the sweet love, so I take your poor faithfulness and crown it with perfection. (GC Apr 12)

Although you can do this only imperfectly, I nonetheless delight in your love—as a mother delights in a crumpled flower brought lovingly by her child. (JL p. 230)

Mother & Daughter vs. Man & Woman

Try and see a Mother preparing birthday or Christmas delights for her child—the while her Mother-heart sings: “Will she not love that? How she will love this!” and anticipates the rapture of her child, her own heart full of the tenderest joy. Where did the Mother learn all this preparation-joy? From Me—a faint echo this of My preparation-joy. (GC Jan 19)

When a man and a woman are deeply in love, they take great delight in pleasing one another. They may spend hours pondering ways to surprise their beloved with unexpected pleasures. Simply anticipating the loved one’s happiness is exciting to such a lover. Actually, I Myself am such a Lover. I delight in increasing your Joy: making it complete. (DJ pp. 150-151)

Obstacle Race vs. Dotted Path

Your discipleship is an obstacle race. . . . Obtain not only your hearts’ desires, but obtain Me . . . What would you think of the runner who threw himself on the ground in despondency at his first hurdle? (GC Jun 09)

When the path before you is dotted with difficulties, beware of measuring your strength against those challenges. . . . Without Me, you wouldn't make it past the first hurdle! (JC Jun 04)

Noiseless Footfall vs. Tiptoe

With noiseless footfall I draw near to you.

(GC Aug 05)

I “tiptoe” closer to you. (DJ p. 227)

Earth-Treasure vs. Copper Coin

Unclasp your hands . . . So often man, crying out for some blessing, has yet such tight hold on some earth-treasure that he has no hand to receive Mine, as I hold it out in Love.

(GC Apr 06)

That is like wrapping your fingers tightly around a small copper coin, while I am offering you unlimited supplies of pure gold. To receive My proffered gift, you must first open your hands . . . (DJ p. 127)

Venturing Out vs. Crawling Out

Hidden in a sure place . . . Make it your home. . . . Over that home shall My Shadow rest. . . . When fears assail you, and cares trouble you, then it is because you have ventured out of that protecting Shadow. . . . the only thing to do is to creep back into shelter again. (GC Sep 18)

So come close to Me and hover under the umbrella of My shielding Presence. You sometimes feel unprotected and exposed to dangers. This happens when you crawl out from under My protective Presence . . . the remedy is simple: Take refuge in Me. (JT p. 216)

Dry Land vs. Desert

My Peace that flows as some calm river through the dry land of life. That causes the trees and flowers of life to spring forth and to yield abundantly. (GC Sep 16)

Through the aridity of those desert marches, I have drawn you closer and closer to Myself. You have discovered flowers of Peace blossoming in the most desolate places. (JC Nov 29)

IV. Similar Scripture Adaptations

1. Hidden Treasure

God Calling and Jesus Calling add “joy” to the context of Proverbs 2:4, replacing “wisdom,” “understanding,” and “insight.”

God Calling, Sep 19

Jesus Calling, Oct 22

Search for the Joy in life.
Hunt for it as for hidden treasure.

Yet Joy is still attainable.
Search for it as for hidden treasure.

(Proverbs 2:4 NIV cited)

Jesus Calling cites Proverbs 2:4 (NIV) out of context:

And if you look for it as for silver and search for it as for hidden treasure.

Compare with Proverbs 2:4 in context:

My son, if you accept my words and store up my commands within you, turning your ear to wisdom and applying your heart to understanding—indeed, if you call out for insight and cry aloud for understanding, and if you look for it as for silver and search for it as for hidden treasure, then you will understand the fear of the Lord and find the knowledge of God. (Proverbs 2:1-5 NIV)

2. Pearls of Great Price

In God Calling, Jesus Calling, and Jesus Always, the singular "pearl of great price" of Matthew 13:46 has multiple new meanings: "truth," "secret," "Peace," and "Love."

God Calling, Jan 10

You must ponder on these truths I give you. They are not surface facts, but the secrets of My Kingdom, the hidden pearls of rare price.

Jesus Calling, Jan 24

My Peace is the treasure of treasures: the pearl of great price.

(Matthew 13:46 NKJV cited)

Jesus Always, Jul 15

Consider the parable of the merchant looking for fine pearls. When he found one of great value, he sold everything he had and bought it. My Love is like that pearl . . .

(Matthew 13:45-46 NIV cited)

Jesus Calling cites Matthew 13:46 (NKJV) out of context:

Who, when he had found one pearl of great price, went and sold all that he had and bought it.

Compare with Matthew 13:46 in context:

Again, the kingdom of heaven is like treasure hidden in a field, which a man found and hid; and for joy over it he goes and sells all that he has and buys that field. Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a merchant seeking beautiful pearls, who, when he had found one pearl of great price, went and sold all that he had and bought it. (Matthew 13:44-46 NKJV)

3. “Jesus” is Calling Your Name

God Calling and Jesus Always add the same new conclusion to the empty tomb account of John 20: “Jesus” is calling your name.

God Calling, Apr 07

Mary left home and kindred, friends, all, that Easter morning in her search for Me, and not until the “Mary” had been followed by the glad triumphant rapture of her “Rabboni” was her search over. So with each of you. Man speaks to you too of a buried Christ. Search until you meet Me face to face, and My tender uttering of your name awakes your glad “Rabboni.”

Jesus Always, Jan 19

After My resurrection, when Mary Magdalene mistook Me for the gardener, I spoke one word: “Mary.” Hearing Me say her name, she recognized Me and cried out in Aramaic, “Rabboni!” (which means Teacher). Beloved, I also speak your name in the depths of your spirit.

(John 20:16 NIV cited)

Compare with John 20:

Mary stood outside the tomb crying. . . . she turned around and saw Jesus standing there, but she did not realize that it was Jesus. He asked her, “Woman, why are you crying? Who is it you are looking for?” Thinking he was the gardener, she said, “Sir, if you have carried him away, tell me where you have put him, and I will get him.” Jesus said to her, “Mary.” She turned toward him and cried out in Aramaic, “Rabboni!” (which means “Teacher”). Jesus said, “Do not hold on to me, for I have not yet ascended to the Father. Go instead to my brothers and tell them, ‘I am ascending to my Father and your Father, to my God and your God.’” Mary Magdalene went to the disciples with the news: “I have seen the Lord!” And she told them that he had said these things to her. (John 20:11-18 NIV)

4. Flowing Sap and Life

God Calling and Jesus Always revise the familiar vine and branches passage of John 15 by adding new vocabulary and omitting the warnings. The words "sap," "life," "flow," and "channel" transform the stay-attached-or-else metaphor into a let-Me-flow-through-you metaphor.

God Calling

It is the work of the Vine, that sends its life-giving sap through those branches. I am the Vine and ye are the branches. (GC Nov 06)

The work of the branch is to provide a channel for the life-flow.<sup>5</sup> (GC Apr 23)

Life it was of which I spoke when I said "I am the Vine and ye are the branches."

The life flow of the Vine is in the branches. . . . All that is in My Nature must therefore pass into yours . . . I am Love and Joy and Peace and Strength and Power . . . Then these, too, you must have as My Life flows through you. (GC Sep 11)

Jesus Always

I am the Vine; you are one of the branches. Whoever lives in Me and I in him bears abundant fruit. Apart from Me . . . you can do nothing.

Ponder this glorious truth: I am alive within you! Just as sap flows from a vine through its branches, so My Life flows through you.

(JA May 28)

(John 15:5 AMP cited)

I am the Vine; you are one of My branches. As you stay connected to Me, My Life flows through you, enabling you to bear much fruit.

(JA Jun 09)

(John 15:5 NASB cited)

Compare with John 15:5 in context:

I am the true vine, and My Father is the vinedresser. Every branch in Me that does not bear fruit, He takes away . . . I am the vine, you are the branches; he who abides in Me and I in him, he bears much fruit, for apart from Me you can do nothing. If anyone does not abide in Me, he is thrown away as a branch and dries up; and they gather them, and cast them into the fire and they are burned. (John 15:1-6 NASB)

5. A Light for My Path

God Calling and Jesus Calling add “the Voice” and “My Presence” to the meaning of “Your word” in Psalm 119:105, opening the door to extrabiblical guidance.

God Calling, Oct 31

My Word, the Scriptures. Read them, study them; store them in your hearts, use them as you use a lamp to guide your footsteps. But remember, My children, My Word is more even than that. It is the Voice that speaks to your hearts, that inner consciousness that tells of Me. It is the Voice that speaks to you intimately, personally, in this sacred evening time. It is even more than that. It is I your Lord and Friend. . . . Truly a lamp to your feet, and a light to your path.

(Psalm 119:105 KJV cited)

Jesus Calling, Aug 10

As you walk close to Me, saturating your mind with Scripture, I will show you how to spend your time and energy. My Word is a lamp to your feet; My Presence is a Light for your path.

(Psalm 119:105 NIV cited)

Compare with Psalm 119:105:

Your word is a lamp to my feet and a light for my path.<sup>1</sup> (NIV)

<sup>1</sup> From the 1984 version of the NIV cited by Young.

6. Face to Face

God Calling, Jesus Calling, and Dear Jesus depict the future "face to face" experience of 1 Corinthians 13:12 as happening both "then" and "now."

God Calling

The Jesus Calling Series

----- In The Future -----

Learn to know Me more and more, and in that Knowledge you will have all the answers you need here, and when you see Me Face to Face, in that purely Spiritual world, you will find no need to ask. (GC Nov 20)

Now you see as if you are looking in a mirror . . . then you will see in reality—face to Face! (DJ p. 181)

(1 Corinthians 13:12 NKJV cited)

Now you see through a glass, darkly, but someday you will see Me face to Face. (JC Feb 24)

(1 Corinthians 13:12 KJV cited)

----- In The Present -----

Search until you meet Me face to face . . . (GC Apr 07)

This opened the way for you to meet Me face to Face<sup>6</sup> . . . (JC Sep 26)

you are face to Face<sup>6</sup> with Me, your Peace. (JC Jan 15)

As you commune with Me face to Face . . . (DJ p. 238)

Compare with 1 Corinthians 13:12:

For now we see through a glass, darkly; but then face to face: now I know in part; but then shall I know even as also I am known. (KJV)

7. The Last Enemy

God Calling and Jesus Always move an end-time event into the past by changing the verb tense of 1 Corinthians 15:26.

God Calling, Apr 09

Remember that death was the last enemy I destroyed. So with death My Victory was complete. You have nothing then to fear.

Jesus Always, Feb 28

The last enemy you will face is death, but My crucifixion and resurrection have decimated that foe! So trust Me to guide you through your life, and afterward take you into Glory.

Compare with 1 Corinthians 15:22-26:

For as in Adam all die, even so in Christ shall all be made alive. But every man in his own order: Christ the firstfruits; afterward they that are Christ's at his coming. Then cometh the end, when he shall have delivered up the kingdom to God, even the Father; when he shall have put down all rule and all authority and power. For he must reign, till he hath put all enemies under his feet. The last enemy that shall be destroyed is death. (KJV)

VI. Similar Prayer/Affirmation Practices

God Calling and the Jesus Calling series instruct the reader to think, say, and pray short, repetitive prayers and affirmations.

God Calling

"My Hand is not shortened that it cannot save." Know that, repeat it, rely on it, welcome the knowledge, delight in it. Such a truth is as a hope flung to a drowning man. Every repetition of it is one pull nearer shore and safety. Let that illustration teach you a great truth. Lay hold of the truth, pray it, affirm it, hold on to the rope.
(GC May 19)

Ever let My words ring out. "Be ye perfect even as your Father in Heaven is perfect." (GC Aug 13) saying, "I trust You, Jesus" in response to whatever happens to you. (JC Jan 04)

VII. Similar Origin Stories

God Calling Intro<sup>8</sup> pp. 11-12

Jesus Calling Original Intro<sup>9</sup> pp. XI-XII

The authors read books about listening to God.

In the Autumn of 1932, I was sitting in the lounge of an hotel when a visitor, quite unknown, crossed over and, handing me a copy of *For Sinners Only,<sup>10</sup> asked if I had read it. . . . I was curiously affected by the book . . . A few months later I read it again.

During that same year I began reading *God Calling, a devotional book written by two anonymous "listeners." These women practiced waiting quietly in God's Presence, pencils and paper in hand, recording the messages they received from Him.

They wondered if they could get messages directly from God.

It was then that there came a persistent desire to try to see whether I could get guidance such as A.J. Russell reported, through sharing a quiet time with the friend with whom I was then living.

I began to wonder if I, too, could receive messages during my times of communing with God. . . . I knew that God communicated with me through the Bible, but I yearned for more.

They set aside time to listen and write.

I was rather sceptical, but, as she agreed, we sat down, pencils and paper in hand and waited.

I decided to listen to God with pen in hand, writing down whatever I believed He was saying.

They got messages.

. . . with my friend a very wonderful thing happened. From the first, beautiful messages were given to her by our Lord Himself, and every day from then these messages have never failed us.

I felt awkward the first time I tried this, but I received a message. . . . Soon, messages began to flow more freely, and I bought a special notebook to record these words.

Appendix A: A Comparison of the Old and New Introductions of Jesus Calling

deleted text: abc

added text: abc

Jesus Calling, Original Intro,<sup>11</sup> p. XI

. . . I realized that experiences of God's Presence were not only for my benefit but were also preparation for helping others.

~~During that same year I began reading God Calling, a devotional book written by two anonymous "listeners." These women practiced waiting quietly in God's Presence, pencils and paper in hand, recording the messages they received from Him. The messages are written in first person, with "I" designating God. While I was living in Japan, someone had mailed this book to me from the U.S. I had not read it at that time, but I had held onto the book through two international moves. Six or seven years later, this little paperback became a treasure to me. It dovetailed remarkably well with my longing to live in Jesus' Presence.~~

Jesus Calling, Revised Intro,<sup>12</sup> p. XII

. . . I realized that experiences of God's Presence were not only for my benefit but were also preparation for helping others.

The following year,
I began to wonder if I, ~~too~~, could ~~receive messages during my times of communing with God.~~

I had been writing in prayer journals for years, but ~~that~~
was one-way communication:
I did all the talking.

~~I knew that God communicated with me through the Bible, but I yearned for more.~~

Increasingly, I wanted to hear what God ~~had to say~~ to me ~~personally~~ on a given day. I decided to listen ~~to God~~ with pen in hand, writing down whatever I ~~believed He was~~ ~~saying. I felt awkward the first~~
~~time I tried this, but I received~~
~~a message. It was short,~~ ~~biblical, and appropriate.~~
~~It addressed topics that were~~ ~~current in my life: trust, fear,~~
~~and closeness to God. I~~ ~~responded by writing in my~~ ~~prayer journal.~~

My journaling ~~had~~ changed
from monologue to dialogue.
~~Soon, messages began to flow~~
~~more freely, and I bought a special~~
~~notebook to record these words.~~

The following year,
I began to wonder if I could change my prayer times from monologue to dialogue.
I had been writing in prayer journals for many years, but this
was one-way communication:
I did all the talking.

Increasingly, I wanted to hear what God might want to communicate to me on a given day. I decided to “listen”
with pen in hand, writing down whatever I “heard” in my mind. As J. I. Packer wrote in his book Your Father Loves You: “God . . . guides
our minds as we think things out in his presence.” This is how I was listening to Him—by focusing on
Jesus and His Word, while asking Him to guide my thoughts. I was not listening for an audible voice;
I was spending time seeking God’s Face (Psalm 27:8 NKJV).

My journaling thus changed
from monologue to dialogue.

This new way of communicating with God became the high point of my day. I knew these writings were not inspired as Scripture is, but they were helping me grow closer to God.

I have continued to receive personal messages from God as I meditate on Him. The more difficult my life circumstances, the more I need these encouraging directives from my Creator.

This practice of listening to God has increased my intimacy with Him more than any other spiritual discipline, so I want to share some of the messages I have received.

...

These messages are meant to be read slowly, preferably in a quiet place. I invite you to keep a journal to record any thoughts or impressions you receive as you wait in His Presence.

Remember that Jesus is Emmanuel, God with us. May He bless you with His Presence and Peace in ever-increasing measure.

This new way of communicating with God became the high point of my day. Of course, I knew my writings were not inspired—as only Scripture is—but they were helping me grow closer to God. This became a delightful way to encourage myself in the Lord (1 Samuel 30:6 NKJV).

This practice of being still in God's Presence has increased my intimacy with Him more than any other spiritual discipline, so I want to share some of the writings I have gleaned from these quiet moments.

...

The devotions in this book are meant to be read slowly, preferably in a quiet place—with your Bible open.

Remember that Jesus is Immanuel, God with us. May you enjoy His Presence and His Peace in ever-increasing measure.
